TANGO WEEKEND Workshop mit Sofia Saborido & Pablo Inza, Cool turns. Basic and effective rebounds and giros (turns). Playing with tango@tangobar.at

Albert Schweitzer Haus Schwarzschanerstr. 13, 1090 Wien

VISION "In improvisation we trust" About tango, we love the possibility to build the dance through small moments. Even if we use patterns while dancing, we challenge the couple to decide step-by-step what will come next. We believe in the real improvisation

CLASSES - In our classes, the dancers will work on awakening the body awareness and connection in order to develop the physical dialogue within the couple. Our technique work doesn't only have an aesthetic purpose, it rather helps to find the comfort of the dancers in a relaxed and sensitive embrace. To stimulate the improvisation in your dance, we focus on short and useful situations rather than long sequences.

GOAL We provide students with useful information to help them develop a personal and creative dance, encouraging the diversity that we so much love about tango.

ACHTUNG: DER WORKSHOP FÜR ANFÄNGER ENTFÄLLT AN DIESEM DONNERSTAG!

Pablo Inza + Sofia Saborido

After decades of teaching and performing around the globe in the most important tango festivals Pablo and Sofia became an international point of reference in the tango scene.

Their professional path made of back and forth trips between Argentina and the rest of the world as well as their expert point of view about the dance are widely appreciated in the tango communities. Refined pedagogues, performers, choreographers, actors, etc Pablo and Sofia are two accomplished artists who partnered in 2013 creating one of the most renowned couples that Argentin tango presently has.
