Caroline Mathias in Vienna July 2022

Caroline Mathias (Buenos Aires/UK) will be in Vienna again for Musicality Workshops and Private Classes from 19-23 July.

All workshops will be held by Caroline & Helmut and last for 2h, including a short break in the middle. They are followed by 30 min practice time to digest and explore further the topics of the class. In the first part of the class we work on how to incorporate the music in our body, we will listen, do exercises alone and with partners; there is a key technical base which helps us be expressive and creative! In the 2nd part we will apply the topic in 1-2 concrete sequences and integrate it into the dance as a couple. We recommend to register with a partner but also single registration is possible.

Friday, 22 July, 19:00-21:00, Switching between Layers – Polyamorous Inspiration

How to communicate what you want to express? How to enrich the dance creatively regardless of the role? How to listen to and take inspiration from your partner and the music, in the moment of the dance?
