Salon Sechshaus (Sechshauser Straße 48 top 2)

If you joined the milongas I organized during summer (and specially those preceded by an open class for complete beginners), you might have realized that I encourage the coexistence of all levels of experience in the dancing floor. A risky bet? Maybe. Do I keep it? Absolutely. Does it lead to disaster? Only if there&#39;s no accompaniment. If you were there you saw it worked. We were all beginners and it&#39;s worth to keep it present. Even going a step beyond and cultivate the capacity to see what we do with beginner eyes again. Not giving it for granted entering in autopilot mode thinking we have nothing to improve in what we already know. This Práctica is an invitation to that. A safe space for beginners to practice and ask what they need in order to gain confidence in their dance. And to everyone from any background and level of experience to experiment, play and get rid of the weight of judgement for the sake of improvisation which is in the core of tango argentino. I like friendly and welcoming spaces and that&#39;s what I&#39;m interested in contributing to create. If you&#39;re on the same track and open to look others in the eye rather than over the shoulder, join and co-create it. This month we get together to practice on two Sundays (Oct 9th and 23rd) from 19:30 to 22:00 in Salon Sechshaus (Sechshauser Straße 48 top 2). Bring dance sneakers/practice shoes (no high heels) or socks if you don&#39;t have any. There&#39;s no entry fee to this Práctica. You contribute the amount of your choice to its sustainability. I bring snacks and soft drinks. You&#39;re welcome to bring something to share if you like. Questions? Reach out:
